We want to keep your function charges as simple as possible. Sometimes though, there may be extra demands placed on the supervision of a function. Your caterer should be able to tell you if any of the following additional charges will be required.

Extra Preparation: For larger or more complex food preparation, or when required in advance of a Shabbat function, extra supervision will be provided at £260 per day (normal working hours).

Venue weighting: Some venues incur an additional charge (£151- £552 details available from KLBD)

Travel and Accommodation: A nominal travel and expenses charge is levied against each event. Functions outside England, at long distance or where accommodation is required, may incur an additional charge.

If you have any questions, please do contact KLBD; we'll be happy to help.
