JOB PURPOSE:

To provide religious and spiritual leadership to Birmingham Central United Synagogue.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Primary Role

To lead, inspire and develop the members in their knowledge and practice of Judaism. In addition, the Rabbi will be a pivotal element in attracting new members to the Synagogue and will encourage children, teenagers, and young adults to enhance their connection with the Synagogue.

2. Service Responsibilities

- To play a full part in and attend all religious services in the Synagogue including leyning and leading services as required, to maintain the customs and practices of the Synagogue relating to services, and to ensure that all services are conducted in accordance with the reasonable requirements of the lay leadership.
- To officiate at Bar and Bat mitzvoth, weddings, funerals, shivas and tombstone consecrations.

- To deliver sermons on Shabbat and Yom Tov that educate, inform, challenge, and inspire members of the congregation; they should be prepared, well delivered, topical, engaging, and motivational sermons with a clear central message.
- To ensure there is a daily minyan for all services, taking the lead working with the lay leadership and encouraging members to support services.

3. Pastoral Role

- To actively and enthusiastically represent the Synagogue to its members in a pastoral capacity, attending to the religious, spiritual and emotional needs of members of the community and their families including, as part of the pastoral care team, visiting the elderly/sick who are hospitalised or at home.
- To play an active role in tending to the social and welfare needs of members of the community.

4. Education Role

- To give a D'var Torah after Shacharit and Mincha/Maariv services and such other occasions as agreed with the Chair of Religious Affairs subcommittee.
- To engage with all pre-Bar/Bat mitzvah youth and their families in advance of the celebrations and to share with them the religious significance of this event.
- To support and encourage members of the community in developing greater knowledge and understanding of Judaism, Halacha, Jewish traditions and practice, and Israel through acting as a role-model and through dialogue, education and personal involvement. This should include proactive initiatives to move the community forward religiously at a pace suitable for the membership.
- To develop and implement youth and children's services, religious, educational and social programmes for the children and teenagers of the community.
- To work with the Rebbetzen (if part of Rabbinic Couple) and become a focal point for the women of the community proactively engaging on religious, educational and social activities.
- To take an active and leading role in formulating and delivering programmes of an educational nature for the general adult membership of the community, designed to broaden and deepen their knowledge and commitment to a broad spectrum of Jewish knowledge, understanding, and activity, for example, delivering regular Shiurim to various groups.

5. Religious authority

To act as the authority on religious issues for Birmingham Central United Synagogue within the boundaries set by the Court of the Chief Rabbi.

6. Israel

To be a committed Zionist and to encourage and reinforce the community's identification and links with the State and people of Israel through personal commitment and involvement at both a communal and religious level.

7. General

- To work with the lay leadership in delivering the strategic plan for the development of the community.
- To play a prominent and visible role in the social, cultural, charitable, educational and welfare groups and activities within the Synagogue.
- To proactively welcome new families and members.
- To provide Shabbat and Yom Tov hospitality.
- To meet with the Chair of the Religious Affairs subcommittee as required.
- To attend General Purposes and Council meetings as required.
- To represent Birmingham Central United Synagogue Community at appropriate forums within the local and wider Jewish and non-Jewish community as and when required.
- To represent Birmingham Central United Synagogue in local inter faith work.
- To interact with and encourage the active participation of students attending Birmingham Central United Synagogue and to ensure they feel welcomed and involved.
- To be a member of the Representative Council of Birmingham and West Midlands Jewry and actively participate in and attend its meetings.
- To be responsible for Kashrut of the Synagogue's own functions and to arrange and sometimes undertake Shomering duties when required.
- To operate at all times with the highest ethical standards, while having the empathy, patience, and resilience of a professional leader.
- At all times to uphold, maintain, and enhance the ethos of Birmingham Central United Synagogue.
